ART CONSULTING SERVICES

Communicate without saying a word.

Lux Fine Art is a full service consulting firm specializing in art acquisitions, artwork reuse and collection management for the corporate, healthcare and hospitality markets. Lux is committed to ensuring our client's facilities remain looking fresh, progressive and visually stimulating without blowing their budget.

We work with our clients, integrating art that best suits the company's style and brand aesthetic. Lux Fine Art is well versed in all aspects of art collection development and long term maintenance. We also work with clients to sell off, donate and/or store works which no longer speak to the company's visual mission. Our clients span all project sizes and budgets. No matter the project we welcome the opportunity to incorporate art into your environment while providing great customer service and personal attention from start to finish.

Lux Fine Art makes bringing creativity and style to your space easy. Our extensive experience and full service approach ensures our clients complete satisfaction in our project management. We offer but are not limited to the following services:

Acquisitions, collection development & brand integration

We work with you to develop a collection that integrates your company's brand and style.

Site installation design & collection integration

We plot locations for your collection to be best appreciated, creating the highest impact possible.

Artwork installation, handling, storage & transportation

We have the proper knowledge and expertise to fulfill your art handling and installation needs.

Create unparalleled

Cataloging & documentation of collection

We catalog your complete collection making it easy for clients to track their investment through the years as it grows in size and value.

Framing design & execution

We offer high quality, affordable framing.

Collection assessment

We review and appraise your collection to determine its current market value.

Collection audit

We check every piece, at each site to confirm the locations, the condition and all integral information has been properly recorded, presenting you with a complete and up to date report.
